

Class_6 English

An Information Bureau

Poet :- Blanche Sprague

SUMMARY:-

The poem is written from perspective of a child and is about her/his mother. The speaker says that her/his mother is like an information bureau because because her/his whole family depends on her for information about everything especially about things that they have mislaid lost or can't find. She says that her/ his mother has all the information at her fingertips!

B. Write the answers.

Q.1. What is an information bureau?

Ans. An information bureau is a place where one can find information about something.

Q.2. Why is a mother like an information bureau?

Ans. A mother is like an information bureau she always has the answers to the family questions and is willing to find a solution to the problems the family members face.

Q.3. "I've lost my notebook., mother. I had it yesterday."

Who do you think said these words? Why is the person not mentioned in the poem?

Ans. The poet said these words and so she is not mentioned in the poem.