

English Class-6 Chapter- 3 (poem)

I Opened a book

Summary:-

The imaginary world a book brings to us remains with us long after we read the book. What is the poet's experience?

The poet experiences are- The poet leaves her home to read a book and forgets the world while reading a book. She enters another world by weaving a cloak and a ring. A book creates a world the poet escapes to like a magic gateway. The poet leaves a real world behind she read a book. She comes back to the real world.

Word meaning.

Cloak- a long loose outer garment without sleeves

Magic potion- a drink with magical powers

B. Discuss in class and write the answers.

1. What objects or images in the poem create the idea of entering a magic world?

Ans. The images new magical ideas after reading a book that are-

She forget the real world and comes to the new world and weaving a cloak and a ring. She creates a world the poet escapes like a magic gateway.

2. Read the lines : I've fought with a dragon.....To the happily ever after.

What does the poet mean here? Has the poet actually done these things?

If not, how has she had these experiences?

Ans. The poet means here when She read a book She comes in a new magical world and forgets the real world. But she has not actually done these. She has experiences to only the imaginary thing what she has read in the book.